Welcome/Announcements

Confession and Forgiveness

God calls us together, giving each of us many and different gifts, different ideas, and different tastes, but sometimes we cannot recognize what gift we have to share.

God reminds us that all gifts are needed, but sometimes we let ourselves be convinced that some gifts are more special than others.

God you call us to work, to live, to love together as parts of one body, but sometimes we decide that membership in the body is limited by our understandings.

God, for the times we have ignored or mislabeled Your gifts, for those times we have cut another off from the body,
We offer words of repentance, asking for God's grace.

...time of silence...

God is the giver of many gifts. Our God, who is slow to anger and quick to forgive, has created one body of Christ, and helps heal the wounds, reuniting the body. God calls us together to build each other up, share what makes us special and serve each other – and all people – in God's love. Know that we are forgiven, loved, and called to welcome all people into the Body of Christ!

Thanks be to God! Alleluia! Amen!

Sisters and brothers in Christ and of Living Grace...

Both our work and our rest are in God. Will you endeavor to continue to pattern your life in Jesus Christ, in gratitude to God, and in service to all, at morning and at evening, at work and at play, all the days of your life? Will you continue to invest in the ministries of Christ's church and in Living Grace's mission?

I will, and I ask God to help me.

Let us pray...Almighty God, by the power of the Spirit, you have knit your servants of Living Grace, along with GPR Parish, into the one body of your Son, Jesus. Look with favor upon them in their commitment to serve in Christ's name. Give us courage, patience, wisdom and vision, strengthened by our Christian vocation to witness to the world that God's love and grace is for all, and that we are called to share Jesus' story, grow in our own faith and serve beyond ourselves. Amen.

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 12:12-14, 24b-28

¹²For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

¹⁴Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. ... ^{24b}God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, ²⁵that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. ²⁶If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

²⁷Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. ²⁸And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues.

Psalm 84: 1-5, 12

¹How dear to me is your dwelling, O LORD of hosts!

²My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the LORD; my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

³Even the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young, by the side of your altars, O LORD of hosts, my king and my God.

⁴Happy are they who dwell in your house! They will always be praising you.

⁵Happy are the people whose strength is in you, whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way.

¹²O LORD of hosts, happy are they who put their trust in you!

Gospel: Luke 4:14-21

¹⁴Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. ¹⁵He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. ¹⁶When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom.

He stood up to read, ¹⁷and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: ¹⁸“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, ¹⁹to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.”

²⁰And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him.

²¹Then he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”
